Miss Virginia Smith Wed To Rev. Mr. Sides

From The Charlotte Observer

Monroe, Dec. 7—Miss Virginia Hill Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Alexander Smith of Unionville, became the bride of Rev. Charles Hobart Sides, Jr., of Barium Springs, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sides of Statesville in a beautiful ceremony solemnized Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the First Baptist church. Rev. Jack T. Akin. pastor, officiated.

Wedding music was rendered by Mrs. H. H. Wilson, organist, and Mrs. Ted O. Morgan, soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a wedding gown of white slipper satin fashioned with fitted bodice, leg-o-mutton sleeves, Queen Anne collar, and full skirt which ended in a train. She wore a chapel-length veil of imported bridal illusion fastened to the head with a sweetheart halo of seed pearls, and carried a white satin prayerbook topped with a white, purple-throated orchid. Her only ornament was a fleur-de-lis pin that belonged to her paternal grandmother.

Mrs. Kenneth S. Welch of Unionville, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Anne Smith, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. They wore dresses of cherry red moire taffeta

Mr. Fred W. Sherrill

Mr. Fred Sherrill died very suddenly on Friday afternoon, December 3rd. He was buried on Sunday, the 5th. He appeared to be in good health up until the time of his death. He died in his car while waiting on a traffic light.

Mr. Sherrill was a bachelor. The many kind things that he did were done quietly and very few people knew about them. For a number of years he has been the inspiration of the boys and girls at the High School at Barium. It has been his custom to give cash prizes to the ones showing the most improvement during the year. He had started this out with ten dollars, and built it up to forty dollars, and that had become the main inspiration for the students in the High School during the year. They wanted to be in on Mr. Sherrill's prizes, not for just the amount of money involved but because of the honor and prestige of reaching that goal. In many other ways Mr. Sherrill was kind to us at Barium.

And They Lived Happily Ever After

The above picture shows our pastor and his bride strolling down the aisle - or up the aisle maybe - would be better . . on a recent afternoon, and from the decorations you know what has just happened. The stroll is the beginning of a lifetime walk which we hope will last many, many years. They are going a roundabout way but will eventually land in the manse at Barium Springs where Mr. Sides has already become a most popular member of our community. You cannot look at this picture without falling in love with this young couple. Barium Springs welcomes them with open arms.

Elsewhere in this paper you will find the detailed account of the wedding.

The Message of the Month

By Rev. Charles H. Sides, Jr.

WHAT DOES CHRISTMAS MEAN TO YOU?

In answering that question do not pause for reflection just now as to what it ought to mean. Instead answer it quite truthfully with the first thing that comes to mind. Does it mean a vacation from work? Does it mean perhaps a time of exchanging gifts, with all the worries that are entailed in making sure that the exchange comes out even and no one is slighted? Is it the holiday spirit and parties and gaiety that appeals most? Might it be the singing of carols, the old and ever new portrayal in our churches of the first Christmas? Perhaps our answer as to what Christmas means to us would include many of these.

And yet most of our answers would sadly reflect the obvious truth that in our modern age Christmas has become a huge festival, a time of unrestrained spending that has grown to such proportions that we can no longer control it. Christmas - an almost frenzied effort to make merry in the time alloted the season. And the day itself is now indeed a holiday and no longer for many a holy day. All of which is but to say that we are taking Christ out of Christmas.

Even in much of our correspondence the word becomes Xmas, and Christ, whose birthday we celebrate, is reduced to the algebraic quantity of X. Were it a cross it might well represent the Lord who died that we might live, but it is not a cross. And Christ is the forgotten element of many a Christmas day as celebrated by the average American.

This not said to lessen our joy. It is said in the hope that ours may be a greater joy and a saner joy this Christmas season. If it is centered in Christ, it will be a joy

The Liniment Bowl Game

A Beautiful Game On A Beautiful Day

By An Interested Bystander

The big Iredell county game annually staged on Thanksgiving Day is now history. The Mitchell college "Fighting Wildcats" were downed by the Barium Alumni in one of the most interesting and spectacular games ever staged in this neighhood.

The ordinary football fan would imagine that a game between two teams, one a college team with no previous experience and the other a team of boys who had most of them never played together and without any preliminary practice, would not be a very creditable exhibition. Well, it just goes to show that the experts don't know their stuff. The game was thrilling, it was an exhibition of good football, most excellent defensive work on the part of Mitchell, and some of the most intricate forward and lateral passing by Barium that you will see on any football team.

The statistics of the game are interesting. Barium made three touchdowns and 10 first downs. Mitchell made no touchdowns and two first downs, and yet all through the game Mitchell was threatening. Their forward passing attack seemed to be the strongest weapon

Mrs. Bessie D. Elliott

Death has again touched our family at Barium and this time taken one of the most beloved members of our community. Mrs. Exam Elliott, the wife of our postmaster and the sister of Mrs. J. B. Johnston, has been in declining health for more than a year. She passed away quietly on the night of November 16th. After a brief service at a funeral home in Statesville the body was taken to Birmingham to be buried in the family plot with her three children. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott have lived at Barium Springs for about four years. During that time Mrs. Elliott was never strong enough to take a very active part in our community life, and yet her kindness and thoughtfulness touched evey life at Barium. Everyone here knew her and loved her. There is hardly a cottage or a building on the campus that has not felt the touch of her hand. Flowers somehow, grew more luxuriantly under her touch. Potted

Usually in the December issue of The Messenger we publish a picture of the football team. We are varying it just a little bit this year and are printing in this issue the picture of the nine senior members of the team, which includes all the boys in the senior class. Take a good look at these boys. They have carried the colors of Barium for four years, one of them for five, as he played when the eighth grade was eligible. In this group is our regular center, three ends, three tackles, and two backs, almost a team in itself. In our last issue we told you about all of our

ANNIE LOUISE

Hello Friends,

Don't be unhappy 'cause we didn't get our news in last time but we will try to make you happy by having it in now.

We have been to lots of movies thanks to our wonderful friends at the Playhouse and at the State in Statesville. Some of the movies we have seen are: "A Southern Yankee" and "My Pal Trigger". We also visited the State to see another Roy Rogers movie.

There are some friends in Morganton and Raleigh who we would like to thank for the candy, games and the radio. On rainy days it is nice to play with our games and listen to the radio. We are hoping to hear a lot of Christmas music as the season draws nearer.

Speaking of Christmas, Santa Claus is all you can hear from us. We know our matron and big sisters could throw us out sometimes. Our Santa Claus letters have gone off and we surely hope we don't get a bag of switches as the old saying goes, "you better watch out 'cause Christmas is right around the corner." All of us are trying to be little "angels" but we find it hard to do so.

Nearly all of our little first grade girls are losing their teeth. What in the world will they do when Christmas comes and they won't be able to eat any candy or nuts?

One of the little girls asked our matron if Santa could come and spend a week-end with us before Christmas. She must want to make sure she isn't left out of things. We don't blame her at all.

Having had some good laughs on some of our smallest girls we want to pass some on to you.

One night we were playing "Knock at the Door" with one of our big sisters when Mary McEwen came to the chair and knocked. The person in the chair said, "who is there." Mary stood there a little while and then said, "your Fuller Brush Man." Well, all we can say is that we hope the roof is still on.

We also delight in imitating the various people on the campus. If they knew this we don't think they would show their faces on the place. Some of the girls can imitate just like the real characters. They really do look funny.

We'll be back again next month with all the Christmas news, and telling what we received for Christmas. You will hear from us next month.

— Annie Louise Girls

BABY COTTAGE

Hi,

I bet you have forgotten that there is a Baby Cottage at Barium Springs you haven't heard from us in so long. We are still here with two new little sisters and three little brothers. We now have a family of ten little girls and ten little boys.

We have been having so many nice things to happen to us that we don't know how to begin. We are all ready for the winter with our new shoes, overshoes, raincoats and coats. Now we can't hardly wait for the snow to fall. The folks who sent us the apple turkeys and mixed candies for Thanksgiving will never know how much we enjoyed them.

The Saturday before Thanksgiving we went to the Playhouse Theater and saw "Alice In Wonderland" and the hostess, Mrs. Johnson treated us with wonderful lollipops. Awhile before that we had gone to the Playhouse Theater and saw "Red Stallion" and that time the hostess Mrs. Johnson treated us with a celephane bag of popcorn. We thank her very much for all the nice things she has done for us and everyone else.

So-long until next month.

fashioned with basque waist buttoned in front, low rounded neckline, cap sleeves, and bouffant skirt. They wore matching mitts, and carried nosegays of gold chrysanthemums and red snapdragons.

The bridegroom was attended by his father as best man. Ushers were the Rev. William H. Kryder of Athens, Ga., and the Rev. H. Edwin Pickard of Richmond, Va.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Florida, after which they will be at home in the manse at Barium Springs.

The bride graduated from Fairview High school. At the time of her marriage she was employed in the office of the Union County Board of Education.

The bridegroom graduated cum laude from Davidson College in 1943 with the B. A. degree, finished Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va., in 1946, receiving the B.D. degree. He served as assistant pastor of First Presbyterian church, Kannapolis, was pastor of Benton Heights Presbyterian church in Monroe for two years before going to his present pastorate at the Presbyterian church at Barium Springs.

Among the out-of-town guests present for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Galbraith, the latter the sister of the bridegroom, Statesville.

Those who attended the wedding from Barium Springs were: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lowrance, Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Arrowood, Bobby Arrowood, Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Donaldson, Hilda Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Twombly, Ralph Spencer, W. A. Hethcox, Roscoe Smith, Helen Vinson, Mrs. E. K. Kyles, Miss Flora Overcash, Clyde Reid, Jerry Williams, Paul Dellinger, and Donald Mitchell.

they had, but too often a Barium red shirt was in the way and intercepted the passes.

The referee carried the ball for a total of 70 yards. Barium was penalized 60 yards; Mitchell 10.

Twenty-two men were dressed out for Barium and they all played. Here is a list of them: There were two players from last year's Barium varsity, Jack Clark and Buddy Lippard. There were two from Barium's '46 team, Gregory and Allen, one from the team of '45, Smith, the center; one from the team of '44, Ammons; one from the '41 team, Pleas Norman. Two played their first varsity for Barium in 1940—the McCall twins, Jack and Tom. Two started on the varsity at Barium in '39, Gibbs and Bolton. Two of the team of '38, Cole and Roach; one from '37, Lee Spencer; two from '36, Joe Savage and John Donaldson; Two from '33, Ralph Spencer and Ed Oliver; one from '31, Charlie Sears, there were three members of our national midget champion teams of the early thirties, Newton Brown, Ed Oliver, Charlie Sears; one whose football career covered from '26 to '30, Lafayette Donaldson and one prize package whose football career at Barium was from '23 to '27, Buck Jackins.

By the way, Buck filled his football uniform so completely that some of the spectators were under the suspicion that he was carrying somebody else under his jersey—he seemed just too big for one man.

All of these 22 men saw action, about evenly divided. Gibbs furnished most of the backfield fireworks, ably abetted by Sears, Cole, Roach and Oliver. Those oldtimers in the line, like Donaldson, Savage, Smith and company, also strutted their stuff. The Barium first touchdown was a pass from Gibbs to Roach to Bolton; the second touchdown was on a run by Gibbs; the third on a run by Jack Clark.

One play that appeared interesting on the surface but turned out to be a complete dud was when Lafayette Donaldson picked up a Mitchell fumble and ran for what he thought was a touchdown—nobody cheered and the referee calmly brought it back and put it where he picked up the ball. Back when Donaldson played ball you could run with fumbles or anything else.

A Good crowd of spectators were out to see the game. The Barium senior class ran the concession stand and the weatherman furnished ideal weather. It's a fine way to wind up the football season. Apparently these two teams will make this an annual event, and Sloan Field is already reserved for the 1949 game.

plants and other flowers that might have withered away under the care of other hands seemed to flourish when she tended them. Her delight was to send flowers and plants to her friends over the campus.

Mrs. Elliott was a sufferer. The doctors who attended her were amazed that she did not show more evidence of suffering than she did. No one will ever know just how much she did suffer, because she did it in silence and cheerfulness. For some time she had known that she did not have long to live, and those last months instead of being filled with evidence of suffering were filled with additional deeds of kindness to her loved ones. Barium Springs is a better place for having had Mrs. Elliott as one of its citizens. We will long miss her.

The Message of the

There is little that is small or humble about the way we normally celebrate the birthday of our Lord. And yet let us for a moment harken back to that day almost two thousand years ago when the little Christ child made his entrance into human life. God worked that day, as he so often does, in a mysterious way. For it is often his way to begin small. We might have supposed that when He sought to save the world He would rend the heavens open with a single stroke, that He would so astound mankind with His majesty and power that even now 1900 years later we could not begin to forget. That would have doubtless been man's way, but it was not God's way.

Instead there was a lowly stable, an abode which none could envy Him. The cattles' lowing provided the only music there. True, the angel voices were united in singing His praise, but as for men he came almost unheralded. The outside world did not pause to note his coming. An ordinary thing, an humble thing, the birth of a little babe. And yet how it changes the course of history. In the year 1809 Napoleon was in his period of power and success. But in that year there came to bless the world tiny babes who later would far overshadow the name of Napoleon. For there were born that year Darwin, Gladstone, Lincoln, Tennyson, Poe, Holmes. The Christ child too came unheralded but our season of Christmas is, or should be, ample evidence that He lives in our hearts.

For Christmas, if we see it aright, is first of all a time of humble thanksgiving for the coming of Jesus Christ. Thanksgiving with joy that God has provided for us a Saviour to redeem us from our sins.

Does Christmas mean that to you? It should! May God help us to see the true meaning of Christmas, a time of universal joy. For Christmas represents good tidings of great joy to all people. It came first of all to the shepherds, lowly men, men of no repute, held by the kings and princes in contempt, and yet the message came first to them.

It was a message that said, "fear not," and that blessed message runs all through God's Word. That men need not fear, not for anything, not since a Saviour comes from God.

It was a message of good tidings and it was to all men, for all men need Christ. It was good news about God. It said, and it could never be contradicted, that God is merciful, that God is love, that He cares enough to send His own Son. It was good news about man. For it pointed out that God believed that man was worth saving, and that God wants us, you and me, all of us to belong to Him. And it was good news about life. Eternal life? Yes, and also a richer and more abundant life to be lived here and now in Christ Jesus.

Christmas means all of that because it makes evident that God has spoken to man. If He had remained silent, we might have reason to despair, but He has spoken. He spoke in times past unto the prophets and fathers, but in these latter days through Jesus Christ.

The Christmas season is evidence of that. That God chose to speak to the heart of man through the birth of the babe of Bethlehem. Let us not lose sight of Jesus in this gay festival season. We look upon it as a season of giving, and well we may. For the divinest gifts of all can only be God's gift of Jesus Christ to a world that needs Him so. And when we give this Christmas season, may our chief gift be this - that we give our own selves unto the Lord.

Barium Football Team

doings up to the two final games. Well, Barium lost both of those games but we don't feel too badly about it. Salisbury, much stronger than usual, defeated us 25-7, our lone touchdown coming from a run on a forward pass by Hillard. Salisbury is one of the best-looking teams we have played in quite some time. The final and all-important game with Statesville was in the mud. It was due to have been played on the 19th but it rained; it was put off until the 22nd, and again it rained and the Statesville football field in some places was thick mud and in other places was thin mud - you either slipped or splashed on pretty near every play. Statesville defeated us by 14-0 on a touchdown pass and on an intercepted pass. Barium threatened twice, taking the ball to the 15-yard line when the first half ended and carrying it to the one-yard line in the second half. This particular game gave Statesville the championship of the South Piedmont and they wore their honors appropriately by defeating Lenoir at Hickory the same week by 14-6.

While all of this was going on our Junior teams played several games, the 110-pound team defeating Davidson High Midgets 47-14. And then a little bit later in two games with Newton-Conover our 110-pound team defeated Newton-Conover 19-12 and the B team defeated them 12-0. This wound up the action on the field. The football banquet was held on the night of December 3rd, and the following boys received letters:

Varsity: J. D. Everett, Mason Traywick, Terrell Hall, Herbert Good, Curtis Baldwin, Jerry Young, Johnny Meroney, Jack Mangum, Paul Barnes, Billy Lybrand, Norvin Hillard, Ricky Lippard, Rufus Bullard, Charles Stevens.

The feature of our banquet this year was a visit from Gwyn Fletcher and Harold Saunders of State College. Gwyn is an old Barium boy and belonged to that unbeatable team of 1941. There were four other members of his team present: Ernest Stricklin, Joe Ben Gibbs, Arthur Roach and Donny Bolton. Gwyn presented the B team letters and after the regular supper showed the film on the Duke-State game which was thoroughly enjoyed by all the guests. Charlie Sears, the star of our midget and varsity teams back in the early thirties, delivered the letters to the 85-pound team. Arthur Roach delivered the letters to the 100-pound team.

Jack Mangum was voted captain for the 1948 season and also was voted the most valuable player. Jerry Young was awarded the best blocking trophy; J. D. Everett, the trophy for the best tackler.

Mr. Jackins presided most efficiently as toastmaster.

The eating season is not over yet as this is written. The team is invited to a banquet at the Vance Hotel in Statesville given by the Touchdown Club of that city. Also, they have an invitation from the Lions Club of Troutman, and if they can get this worked in between basketball games they will certainly consume a lot of food in celebration of the football season.

It has been a nice year. We have not won all the games we have played but we have won the respect of every team that we went up against and won our share of the games. A lot of praise and credit is due the boys in this picture. The others coming along will have an extra load to carry next year filling the gaps left by these nine good seniors.
